

I could never be a Christian because
... there are no gods
John 20.19-31

St James' by the Park

Two introductory questions:

Why don't you believe in a god?

What sort of god don't you believe in?

Further questions:

How do you explain something from nothing?

How do you explain order from chaos?

How do you explain life from matter?

How do you explain humanity from simplicity?

How do you explain Jesus?
