

At our Annual Parish Church Meeting on 12th Oct, we need to elect 3 people to our Church Council to serve a 3 year term. Could God be calling you to this important role? Who could you be encouraging to serve in this way?

Why is the Parish Church Council important?

The PCC is responsible (with the vicar) for “promoting the whole mission of the church: pastoral, evangelistic, social and ecumenical”. In practise, the PCC is responsible for discerning the vision and direction for St. James’ by the Park, and making major decisions to help bring that vision to fruition.

The PCC is the legal governing body of a Church of England parish. As such, it also has various legal duties with regard to our buildings, finances, paid staff and safeguarding procedures. However, we don’t expect PCC members to be an expert in any or all of these areas!

Who gets to be on the Parish Church Council?

The PCC is made up of:

- * the clergy
- * the elected Leadership Wardens
- * 9 other elected members of the congregation – three of whom are up for election this April
- * a youth rep, who is co-opted by the PCC
- * three ‘deanery synod reps’ (who represent us to other Anglican churches in Southampton – these are also up for election this year)
- * a Treasurer, who is appointed by the PCC
- * some church staff also attend PCC meetings

What sort of people should stand for election to PCC?

Faith and character: None of us are perfect, but a PCC member should be able to say, “Follow me, as I follow Christ” – in other words, they should seek to be living a godly life, setting an example to others. The Bible says that a leader “must be worthy of respect, sincere” etc, and demonstrate integrity of belief, which means “they must keep hold of the deep truths of the faith with a clear conscience.”

Vision and leadership: We need people who can grapple with big issues and help make tough choices, helping us continue to discern God’s vision and direction for our church.

Gifts and experience: None of us have all the gifts needed to lead a church, which is why the New Testament speaks of teams of leaders. We need a variety of gifts to make a rounded PCC. We need people who are willing to challenge our thinking, to contribute to discussions, preferably from a variety of backgrounds (age, gender, class, nationality etc).

Attitude: All of us have personal preferences for how a church should run, but PCC members need to put those aside to discern the corporate responsibilities the Lord is calling us to have as a community at this point in time. Christian leadership is about service.

Legalities: Candidates for election must be 16 or over. PCC members are considered ‘trustees’ by the Charity Commission, meaning that some criminal convictions bar people from holding this office. All PCC members must undergo Safeguarding vetting through DBS checks and Safeguarding training

What sort of things will the PCC be discussing?

Mission: As we enter a season of LISTENing, we're expectant that the Lord will guide our next steps in mission: Have we got the right mission focus areas? Have we got the right mission partnerships? We also want to play our part within the bigger diocesan strategy (all the Anglican churches in the diocese of Winchester).

Leadership: we need to think about how we can encourage more people into leadership.

Buildings: this year, we hopefully need to decide who to sell St John's to, and to make significant progress working out options and plans for St James and the Parish Hall.

Finances: we need to keep a close eye on our income levels, making sure that we don't spend more than we've got, and using what we have got wisely!

What is expected of a PCC member?

The pattern for PCC meeting is normally one Saturday day-time meeting and one Monday evening meeting each term. Members are expected to prayerfully read through any papers related to the agenda before each meeting, and to contribute constructively to the discussion and decision-making process. Some PCC members also serve on various task groups (eg overseeing our external mission partners). Some also act as a ‘PCC link’ to individuals on the church staff team or to one of our 7 mission focus areas.

What next?

If you feel the Lord is prompting you to stand, speak with existing PCC members or the church wardens or clergy to gain more understanding of the role. Ask others whether they would be willing to propose or second you. If you can think of someone else who would be a good PCC member, approach them, or suggest them to the wardens.

Key dates

Completed nomination forms should be returned to the church office by Friday 9th October. The elections will take place at our Annual Parish Church Meeting on 12th October (you don’t need to be present to stand). The first meeting of the new PCC will be on Mon 9th November and 14th December. We expect PCC members to be present at most of the meetings.
